Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 03 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mainly dry and bright on Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
This evening will be dry but mostly cloudy. The rest of the night will remain cloudy and there may be the odd light shower over eastern counties. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Saturday:
A rather cloudy start then brightening up with some sunny intervals. Most places staying dry but the odd light shower is possible. Quite warm. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry morning on Sunday, rain slowly spreading east in the afternoon and evening. Dull damp start of Monday then becoming warm and sunny. Tuesday sunny and very warm.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.